

RULES FOR MEDIATION

1. Definition of Mediation. Mediation is a process by which an impartial person, the mediator, facilitates communication between parties to a dispute to promote reconciliation, settlement or understanding among them. The mediator may not impose his or her own judgment on the issues for that of the parties.
2. Agreement of Parties. Whenever the parties have agreed to mediation they shall be deemed to have these rules, as binding and in effect as of the date of the submission of the dispute, as part of their agreement to mediate.
3. Consent to Mediator. The parties consent to the appointment of the individual named as the Mediator in their case. The mediator shall act as an advocate for resolution and shall use his best efforts to assist the parties in reaching a mutually acceptable settlement.
4. Conditions Precedent to Serving as a Mediator. The mediator will only serve in cases in which he or she has no financial or personal interest in the result of the mediation. Prior to the hearing, the mediator shall disclose any circumstance likely to create a presumption of bias or prevent a prompt meeting with the parties. In the event that the parties disagree as to whether the mediator shall serve, the mediator shall not serve.
5. Authority of Mediator. The mediator does not have the authority to decide any issue for the parties, but will attempt to facilitate the voluntary resolution of the dispute by the parties. The mediator is authorized to conduct joint and separate meetings with the parties and to offer suggestions to assist the parties achieve settlement. If necessary, the Mediator may also obtain expert advice concerning technical aspects of the dispute, provided that the parties agree and assume the expenses of obtaining such advice. Arrangements for obtaining such advice shall be made by the Mediator or the parties, as the Mediator shall determine.
6. Mediator Cannot Impose Settlement. The parties understand that the mediator will not and cannot impose a settlement in their case and agree that they are responsible for negotiating a settlement acceptable to them. The mediator will use every effort to facilitate the negotiations of the parties. The mediator does not warrant or represent that settlement will result from the mediation process.
7. Authority of Representatives. PARTY REPRESENTATIVES MUST HAVE PRINCIPAL AUTHORITY TO SETTLE AND ALL PERSONS NECESSARY TO THE DECISION TO SETTLE SHALL BE PRESENT. The names and addresses of such persons shall be communicated in writing to all parties to the dispute and to the mediator.
8. Time and Place of Mediation. The Mediator shall fix the time of each mediation session. The mediation shall be held at the office of the Mediator, or at any other convenient location agreeable to the Mediator and the parties, as the Mediator shall determine.
9. Identification of Matters in Dispute. Prior to the first scheduled mediation session, each party shall provide the Mediator and all attorneys of record and/or pro se parties with an Information Sheet and Request For Mediation on the form provided by the Mediator setting forth its position in regard to the issues that need to be resolved.
10. Privacy. Mediation sessions are private. The parties and their representatives may attend the mediation session. Other persons may attend only with the permission of the parties and with the consent of the mediator.
11. Confidentiality. Confidential information disclosed to a mediator by the parties or by witnesses in the course of the mediation shall not be divulged by the mediator or any observers. All records, reports or other documents received by a mediator while serving in that capacity shall be confidential. The mediator shall not be compelled to divulge such records or to testify in regard to the mediation in any adversary proceeding or judicial forum. Any party that violates this agreement shall pay all fees and expenses of the mediator and other parties, including reasonable attorneys' fees, incurred in opposing the efforts to compel testimony or records from the mediator.

The parties shall maintain the confidentiality of the mediation and shall not rely on, or introduce as evidence in any arbitral, judicial or other proceeding, including: a) views expressed or suggestions made by a party with respect to a possible settlement of the dispute; b) admissions made by a party in the course of the mediation proceedings; c) options proposed by the mediator; and d) the fact that a party had or had not indicated a willingness to accept the options proposed by the mediator.
12. No Stenographic Record. There shall be no stenographic record of the mediation process and no person shall tape record any portion of the mediation session.
13. No Service of Process at or near the site of the Mediation Session. No subpoenas, summons, complaints, citations, writs or other process may be served upon any person at or near the site of the mediation session, or upon any person entering, attending or leaving the session.
14. Termination of Mediation. The mediation shall be terminated: a) by execution of a settlement agreement by the parties; b) by declaration of the mediator to the effect that further efforts of mediation are no longer worthwhile; or c) after the completion of one full mediation session, by written declaration of a party or parties to the effect that the mediation proceedings are terminated.
15. Exclusion of Liability. The mediator is not a necessary or proper party in any judicial proceedings relating to the mediation. Neither the Mediator nor any law firm employing Mediator shall be liable to any party for any act or omission in connection with any mediation conducted under these rules.
16. Interpretation and Application of Rules. The mediator shall interpret and apply these rules.
17. Fees and Expenses. The Mediator's daily fee shall be agreed upon prior to mediation and shall be paid in advance of each mediation day. The expenses of witnesses for either side shall be paid by the party producing such witnesses. All other expenses of the mediation, including fees and expenses of the Mediator, shall be borne equally by the parties unless they agree otherwise.
